

JEANETTE'S DREAMS

Jeanette is one of those unique individuals who is able to connect with the dead. Her speciality is in the location of the bodies of victims of crime, usually achieved with the help of “cadaver” dogs. The police often request her expertise, but rarely acknowledge her aid because of their fear of public reprisal. Nevertheless, she has a high rate of success and she feels that when they are unsuccessful, it is because they haven’t taken heed of her directions. She knows this because quite a number of lost bodies have been found accidentally after the fact, exactly where she specified. She has provided closure for many bereaved relatives and given peace to restless and distressed spirits who want their story known and remains respected.

Jeanette can find someone just by focusing on their name or a photograph, but she also has dreams in which she is contacted by the deceased. The sculpture represents an image of a green hand growing out of a tree limb. Where there is death, there is also life. Energy is always a constant and that is why Jeanette is able to pick up the essence of a spirit even if a very long time has passed since the person’s death. I chose the image because so many bodies that Jeanette locates are buried underground.
