

MELANNIE & SARAH'S DREAM OF THE CRONE

THIS is a follow up dream to the painting of a dream that Sarah gave me last year. Both Sarah and her sister had this dream in the same week. They dreamed of going to see a very ancient woman in the midst of a deep forest – seemingly a simple dream.

The woman is the Crone – a nourishing entity but primarily an agent of wisdom and knowledge. She is associated with rebirth and I believe that the dream is a healing message to the sisters that they are finally free to live without the oppression of their father and the fear and impotence that his regime brought them.